

Informal Resolution: Section 542.13

Wayne Norrie

Issue: Dates of Receiving document(s)

On 12-1-20, I wrote my Request for Compassionate Release to warden D. Young. (see attached copy-A)

On 12-21-20, The Request Form was stamped Received and Initialed (initials illegible).

On 2-8-21, at 7:00 pm, a Female FCI Beckley Staff member (unknown) approached my cell (cav 416) and gave me a copy of my 12-1-20 Request for Compassionate Release, a copy the warden denial (see attached copy-B) and a BP-9 (229)

The Problem is that date of the warden's alleged denial is recorded at 1-22-21 (see exhibit-B), However this denial comes 38 days after stamped date on 12-21-20 (see exhibit-A). I Request Compassionate Release 12-1-20, Request was stamped Received 12-21-20, warden denial was dated 1-22-21, I Received the warden's denial 2-8-21 at 7pm. This is 68 days since I Requested and 38 days since stamped Received and 8 days after the language of 18 USC Section 3582 (c)(1)(A).

The 8 days late is past the 30 days required by law in a Compassionate Release motion and legislative intent of Prescribed Rule for Filing. No Special Circumstance(s) was given for the 8 day delay or justified relating to the 30 days timeline for the warden's answer.

Relief: To have acknowledged that these documents were provided to me on February 8, 2021 with the backdate of 1-22-21 answer from warden D. Young
